Jesus often sent people he encountered into action saying, “Go!” “Go; your faith has made you well,” he told the man born blind. “Go, sell what you own,” he told the man born rich. “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations,” he told the Apostles. Each case is an invitation to explore a new way of living in the light of grace.

Parents begin to explore a whole new way of living when children come into our lives. We learn to tend to our children’s ailments, whether physical or psychological; we sacrifice immediate ease and pleasure for their physical, spiritual, and moral welfare; and we teach in both word and example what it means to follow Jesus, who tells us, Go! Explore what it means to live in the Kingdom of God. —Tom McGrath
